

National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE)

BART Assessment Team Members

Louis Dekmar, Chief of LaGrange, Georgia Police Department. Graduate of the FBI Academy Session 142 and the FBI Law Enforcement Executive Development Seminars, 42nd Session. Chairman of Training Committee. He has served as a federal monitor for the Civil Rights Division for the US Department of Justice. Chair, Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Past-President of the Georgia Association of Chiefs of Police, and former member of Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST). Master of Public Administration, Georgia College and State University, and Bachelor of Science, University of Wyoming.

Douglas DeLeaver, Chief of Police (Retired) Maryland Transit Administration Police Force. Immediate Past President, National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE). Board Member for PULSE (People United Living in a Safe Environment). Graduate of the FBI National Academy. Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice.

Wanda Dunham, Chief of Police, Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority. Adjunct professor of Homeland Security and Criminal Justice for Herzing University. P.O.S.T. Certified Instructor. Master of Arts, Public Administration, Columbus State University and Bachelor of Science, Criminal Justice, Jacksonville State University.

Hajir Nuriddin, Lieutenant, Bakersfield, California Police Department. Served as an instructor for the FBI International Law Enforcement Police Training Academy, Botswana, Africa. Graduate of the Harvard University, John F. Kennedy School Government, Senior Management institute for the Police Executive Research Forum, Boston, Massachusetts. Department of Justice Certified Diversity Instructor and P.O.S.T. certified in Diversity and Hostile Work Environment. Master of Arts, Public Administration, California State University, and Bachelor of Arts, Public Administration, California State University.

Patrick Oliver, Assistant Professor and Director of the criminal Justice Program, Cedarville University, Ohio. Former Chief of Police for the following agencies: City of Fairborn, Ohio Police Department, City of Grandview Heights, Ohio, Division of Police, Cleveland Metropolitan Park District and Cleveland, Ohio Police Department. Masters Degree in Business Administration, Baldwin Wallace College, and Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice, Baldwin Wallace College. Graduate of FBI's Law Enforcement Executive Development School and Certified Law Enforcement Executive (CLEE). Past President of Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police and served for 9 years as a commissioner with the Commission of Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies.

David Scott, Chief of Police, Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority (SEPTA) Police Department. Developed SEPTA's System Security and Emergency Preparedness Plan. Serves on the U.S. Attorney's Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council (ATAC). Serves on Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency, Disproportionate Minority Committee. Master of Science, Criminal Justice, St. Joseph's University and Bachelor of Arts, Psychology, Cheyney University.

Robert Stewart, President and CEO, Bobcat Training and Consulting, Inc.-a Police management consulting firm. Former Chief of Police, Ormond Beach, Florida. Served as a consultant to review Use of Force and Civil Rights policies for law enforcement agencies. Graduate of the 144th Session of the FBI National Academy. Past Executive Director, National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE). Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, Howard University, Washington, DC.

Jimmy Wilson, formerly Chief of Police (retired), Suffolk, Virginia Police Department, Chief of Police, Canton, MS Police Department, Chief of Police, Jackson, MS Police Department, Deputy Chief of Police, Metropolitan Police Department of the District of Columbia. Served as a Management Consultant to examine Use of Deadly Force Study for the Louisville, Kentucky Police Department, and conducted a Management Audit for the Dallas Police Department. Instructor, International Law Enforcement Academy, Botswana, Africa-Criminal Investigations. Master of Science, Education, Virginia State University, Bachelor of Science, Administration of Justice, American University. Past President, NOBLE, Past President, Hampton Roads, Virginia Chiefs of Police Association.