

OAK to San Francisco in 45 minutes for only $6.55!*

BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit) from OAK is fast, easy and inexpensive too! Just take the convenient AirBART shuttle bus from OAK to BART to catch the train to downtown San Francisco. The entire trip takes about 45 minutes and costs only $6.55 one-way or $13.10 round trip.

The AirBART shuttle departs every 15 minutes from the 3rd curb across from the terminals. When you get off the shuttle at the Coliseum BART station, buy a round trip BART ticket from the ticket machine. Take the escalator up to the westbound platform and board a San Francisco or Daly City bound train. The BART trip to San Francisco takes about 20 minutes.

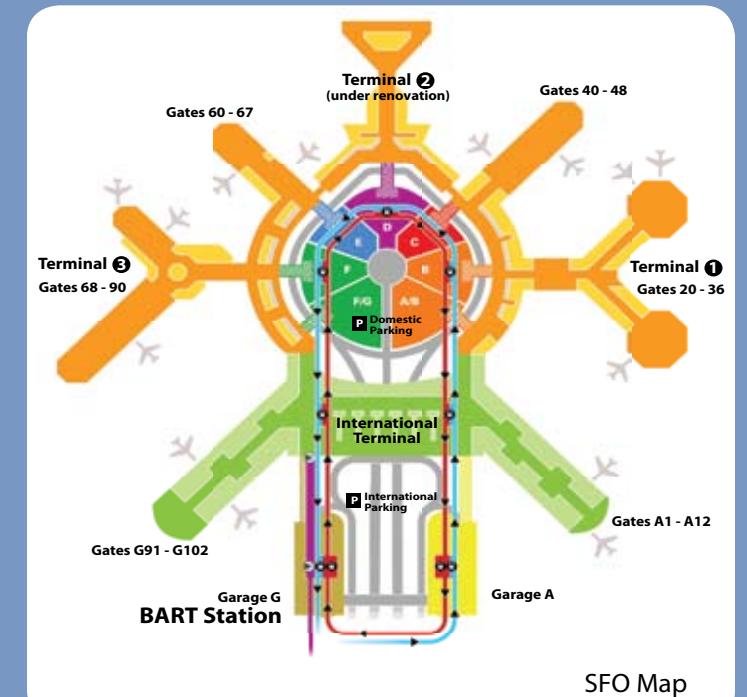

Visitors Guide to BART

SFO to San Francisco in 30 minutes for only $5.35!*

BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit) provides one of the world's best airport-to-downtown train services. BART takes you downtown in 30 minutes for only $5.35 one-way or $10.70 round trip. It's the fast, easy, inexpensive way to get to San Francisco.

The BART station is located in the SFO International Terminal. It's only a five minute walk from Terminal Three and a 10 minute walk from Terminal One. Both terminals have connecting walkways to the International Terminal. You can also take the free SFO Airtrain to the BART station.

Downtown San Francisco Stations

- Civic Center Station – serves upper Market district, Van Ness Avenue hotels, and the Castro District via a short Muni ride
- Powell St. Station – serves Union Square hotels, the Marriott, Hotel Intercontinental, Hilton, Parc 55, Hotel Nikko and Moscone West
- Montgomery St. Station – serves Financial District South of Market hotels, Palace Hotel, W Hotel, Westin Market Street, St. Regis, Four Seasons and Moscone North and South
- Embarcadero Station – serves lower Financial District hotels, Le Meridien, and the Hyatt Regency Embarcadero, where you can take a taxi to Fisherman's Wharf hotels

Want to learn about great deals on concerts, plays, museums and other activities during your visit? Go to www.mybart.org to learn about fantastic special offers for BART customers. The myBART offers change every week.

BART from OAK or SFO
The Way to Go!

*BART fares will increase an estimated 5.5% in January 2010. Go to www.bart.gov for current fare information.

SFO BART to CalTrain

It's easy to get to San Jose and Peninsula cities from SFO. Just take BART to San Bruno and transfer to a Millbrae train. When you arrive at the Millbrae station, transfer to a southbound CalTrain. CalTrain stops at major Peninsula cities from Millbrae to San Jose. Check www.caltrain.com for more information.

Other BART Destinations

Visiting friends and relatives or staying in the East Bay? Take BART to their local station, where it's more convenient to meet you.

You can also take BART sightseeing around the Bay Area! Our trains run throughout the picturesque East Bay and San Francisco neighborhoods where there are numerous parks, hiking trails, museums and interesting places to visit. In Oakland you can visit the Museum of California; or the popular Rockridge district for dining and boutique shopping. You can also go to Berkeley to visit the University of California campus or renowned restaurants like Chez Panisse.

In San Francisco take BART to the Mission district for dining and nightlife or downtown for shopping, museums or theaters. Visit www.bart.gov for a list of destinations and attractions served by BART.

How to Ride BART

1. Go to the BART map and select your destination
2. Purchase a ticket from the machine
3. Place ticket into the slot on the fare gate
4. Remove ticket to open the fare gate
5. Proceed to the train
6. Use your ticket to exit at your destination

BART Tickets Online

If you're a U.S. resident, you can make your trip easier by purchasing an OAK Travel Pack or SFO tickets in advance at <http://www.bart.gov/tickets/types/types.aspx>. Tickets will be mailed within 24 hours. Please order tickets a minimum of two weeks before your departure.

BART Transfers Online

If you book your travel to SFO online, check the Attractions section of the travel site to see if BART tickets are available. You can also ask your travel agent if a BART airport transfer can be purchased from them.

BART Transfers are Available at:

- Expedia (U.S. and International sites)
- American Express Travel
- United Vacations (U.S. & U.K.)
- Orbitz
- Cheaptickets
- Travelocity
- Southwest Vacations
- Funjet Vacations
- Sam's Club Travel
- AARP Travel
- Octopus Travel

BART tickets are also sold in BART stations. Ticket vending machines accept major credit and debit cards.

BART Trip Planning

Plan your BART trip in advance at www.bart.gov. Use the QuickPlanner for train schedules and directions to your hotel. First choose the departure station, then select Enter an Address above the Arrival box, enter your hotel address and select Get Schedule. For directions to your hotel, select the tab next to BART Trip Details.

BART Hours of Operation

Weekdays: 4:00 a.m. to midnight
 Saturday: 6:00 a.m. to midnight
 Sunday: 8:00 a.m. to midnight