The San Francisco Bay Area is famous around the world for its vibrant cultural scene, distinctive neighborhoods, and eclectic shopping, dining and entertainment choices.

Museums cater to every interest—modern art at SFMOMA and California history at the Oakland Museum, while theater, ballet, opera, and popular music enthusiasts can take advantage of dozens of performing arts venues. Food, fashion, and fun are the main attractions in San Francisco neighborhoods like North Beach, Chinatown, Haight-Ashbury, and the Mission. Those drawn to bookstores and cafes will find just what they’re looking for near UC Berkeley. The Bay Area is also acclaimed for its natural beauty—dramatic bridges, spectacular bay views, scenic parks and trails, and refreshing beaches all lend themselves to outdoor recreation and relaxation. Families will find lots of kid-friendly activities at venues like the Exploratorium, Lake Merritt, Golden Gate Park, and the Oakland Zoo.

For residents and visitors alike, traveling by BART is a fast, fun, and convenient way to explore the many exciting and diverse leisure activities that the Bay Area has to offer. Whether you’re going to the ballpark or an art exhibit, a shopping mall or a film festival, BART can take you there—without the hassles of driving, traffic, and looking for parking.

The “BART Destinations Guide” lists hundreds of destinations in and around San Francisco, the East Bay and as far south as San Jose that can be reached directly by BART, or by taking BART and an easy connection to other local transit services. For detailed information on BART train schedules and tickets, pick up a copy of the “BART Fares and Schedules” brochure at any BART station or visit www.bart.gov.

BART SERVICE OVERVIEW

BART operates five lines with service to 43 stations in the San Francisco Bay Area. Hours of operation are generally from 4 am to midnight on weekdays, 6 am to midnight on Saturdays, and 8 am to midnight on Sundays and holidays. In many cases, BART service extends past midnight. For exact times on each route, see train schedules posted in stations, in brochures, and at www.bart.gov.

BART FARES & TICKETS

Fares are based on how far you travel. Purchase tickets at the BART station. Ticket machines accept debit/credit cards and US currency. Children age 4 and under ride free!

BART System Map

Information described in this document is subject to change without notice. Train schedules published in BART brochures do not anticipate service disruptions but are approximations for a normal trip. BART cannot assume responsibility for inconvenience, expense or damage resulting from errors in time estimates, delayed trains, fares, failure to make connections or shortage of equipment.
