PITTSBURG/BAY POINT LINE

Maintenance-Related Minor Delays

Weekends in June through Labor Day 2011

Dear Customer:

On the following weekends, there will be some minor delays on the Pittsburg/Bay Point line due to track maintenance. Our best estimate is that passengers travelling Northbound on the Pittsburg/Bay Point line will experience a 15-20 minute delay during the hours work is being performed. Passengers travelling Southbound may experience a 5 minute delay due to single-tracking. Please see the schedule below for work hours.

We recommend that you adjust your travel plans accordingly to take into account these delays.

End: 4:00 am Monday

July 01-04, 10-13, 22-25

July 29-August 1, August 05-08, 12-15, 19-22, 26-29
