

Workshops for Artists

Come learn about upcoming permanent art opportunities at the 19th Street Oakland, El Cerrito del Norte, and Powell Street BART stations. Art works will include large scale digital prints, mosaic tiles, and treatment of four stainless steel columns.

BART staff will describe new art opportunities, forthcoming changes to the design of the station, key themes that should influence the art, and the call for artist process using CAFE (www.callforentry.org).

These workshops will be held prior to the Call for Artists release, to offer artists ample time for preparation of materials. Workshops are limited to 20-30 people, and each workshop is the same so you only need to attend one. You must register to attend.
