

#NOTONEMOREGIRL

GETTING HELP for gender-based violence or sexual harassment on BART.

Call BART Police: 510.464.7000

Text BART Police: 510.200.0992

Use the free BART Watch app to send a private message to police dispatch. An anonymous feature is available.

Tell the train operator: use the intercom button located in all cars

Intercoms can be found near each door area on new cars and at car ends in older cars.

If on a train, note the car number

Car numbers can be found inside cars above doors at ends of cars, or outside near end of cars.

Use the white phones inside all stations to reach an employee 24/7

Seek out any BART employee
Look for a BART logo

#NotOneMoreGirl is a community driven initiative centering girls and gender expansive youth to reimagine safety for BART riders.

#NOTONE MORE GIRL

If you do not feel comfortable reaching out to BART police, contact one of these community organizations, who provide immediate services for gender-based violence and sexual harassment:

- Bay Area Women Against Rape
510.845.7273
- Family Violence Law Center
(for Alameda County) 1.800.947.8301
- National Domestic Violence Hotline
800.799.7233
- San Francisco Women Against Rape
415.647.7273

It is on all of us to help our girls and gender expansive youth. Watch our bystander intervention training video to learn how at www.bart.gov/NotOneMoreGirl

WWW.BART.GOV/NOTONEMOREGIRL

