

Welcome to BART at Oakland International Airport

The Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) rail system provides service from the Oakland International Airport (OAK) BART Station to downtown

San Francisco, the East Bay and Peninsula cities.

Avoid traffic, parking hassles and the high cost of taxis, rental cars and bridge tolls by taking BART from Oakland International Airport to your destination.

BART operates routes to 48 conveniently located stations in the San Francisco Bay Area.

BART Airport Guide

BART... and you're there.

Shuttle Trains to the BART Coliseum Station

The entrance to the BART Oakland International Airport (OAK) Station is located between Terminals 1 and 2 as you exit the airport. Use the escalators or elevators to access the elevated platform and wait for a BART shuttle train to take you to the BART Coliseum Station. The trip from the airport to the Coliseum Station will take about 8 minutes.

Once there, you must purchase a BART ticket to your final destination. Brochures, information displays and ticket vending machines are conveniently located where you exit the shuttle.

Shuttle Train Hours and Frequency

Shuttle trains arrive throughout the day; from approximately 5 am to 12:43 am on weekdays, 6 am to 12:43 am on Saturdays, and 8 am to 12:43 am on Sundays as follows:
