

Walnut Creek Station Phase I Garage Construction Access

Initial construction activities will impact access to the Western Entrance of the parking garage and connected access road. While the Western entrance of the garage is closed, the North and South entrances will remain open at all times. Please see the circulation map below for additional detail.

