Our Responsibility

Our responsibility under U.S. Generally Accepted Auditing Standards.

To perform an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards issued by the AICPA, and to design the audit to obtain reasonable, rather than absolute, assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

To obtain an understanding of the State Bar and its environment, including internal controls over financial reporting and compliance, as a basis for designing our audit procedures, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on its effectiveness.

To communicate findings that, in our judgment, are relevant to your responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. However, we are not required to design procedures for the purpose of identifying other matters to communicate to you.

What is Materiality?

Materiality

The amount of a misstatement that could influence the economic decisions of users, taken on the basis of the financial statements.

How It’s Calculated:

Using certain quantitative (e.g., total assets, total revenues, or other financial information) and qualitative factors (e.g., covenants, expectations, or industry factors)

It’s Used To Identify:

• Significant risk areas
• Nature, timing, extent, and scope of test work
• Findings or misstatements
Significant Audit Areas

Financial closing and reporting – including drafting of financial statements and footnote disclosures

Investment valuation and disclosures

Capital assets and constructions
Significant Audit Areas (continued)

- Bonds, other long term debts and self-insurance liabilities, and the related compliance
- Pension and other post-employment benefits (OPEB) accounting, valuation, and disclosures
- Revenue recognition – fees, grants, tax revenues and the related compliance
Auditors must consider fraud to “improve the likelihood that auditors will detect material misstatements due to fraud in a financial statement audit.”

How we gather information to identify fraud-related risks of material misstatement:

- Brainstorm with team
- Conduct personnel interviews
- Document understanding of internal controls
- Consider unusual or unexpected relationships identified in planning and performing the audit

Procedures to be performed:

- Examine general journal entries for nonstandard transactions
- Evaluate policies and accounting for revenue recognition
- Test and analyze significant accounting estimates for biases
- Evaluate the business rationale for significant unusual transactions

FISCAL YEAR 2021 AUDIT PLAN

August 2020

San Francisco Bay Area
Rapid Transit District
1.0 INTRODUCTION

1.1 MISSION OF INTERNAL AUDIT
Internal Audit’s mission is to provide independent, reliable, timely, and value-added audit services to BART management. Internal Audit provides independent assurance that BART’s risk management, governance, and internal control processes are operating effectively by conducting, coordinating, and managing compliance, regulatory, legislative, and special audits and assessments with priority given to identifying and addressing areas of fraud, waste, and abuse.

1.2 INTERNAL AUDIT ACTIVITIES
Internal Audit, part of the Performance and Audit Department, provides independent audit services, with the responsibility for auditing, examining and reviewing District activities (other than the District’s financial audit) to help ensure that: assets are safeguarded; business operations comply with applicable policies, regulations, and rules; and District records are accurate and complete. Internal Audit is responsible for conducting operational/performance audits and audits of District’s contractors, coordinating audits performed by external government agencies (e.g., Federal Transit Administration, Metropolitan Transportation Commission), and managing the sales tax recovery services agreement. Internal Audit also provides analytical non-audit support services to other BART departments and activities as requested.

Audit and non-audit activities may include:
Compliance Reviews: Compliance reviews ensure that the terms and conditions of contracts, bond measures (e.g., Measure RR), memorandums of understanding, or other agreements are being followed and that there is compliance with BART Management Procedures, District policies, and applicable regulatory requirements (e.g., FTA, MTC, State of California).

Contractor Rate and Price Reviews: Contractor rate reviews determine if agreed-upon billing rates applied to planning, architectural, engineering, construction, and other projects meet the specifications of vendor contracts. Contractor price reviews refer to reviewing vendor’s proposed pricing to ensure it is fair and reasonable, and based upon the vendor’s costs and other criteria. Related activities include assessing contractor delay and termination claims.

Buy America Reviews: Buy America reviews assess in-production and post-delivery compliance with federal Buy America laws and BART contract specifications for rail vehicle and other purchases.

Internal Control Reviews: Internal control reviews provide reasonable assurance that processes, rules, policies, and procedures comply with laws and regulations, ensure integrity of financial and accounting information, promote accountability, prevent fraud and are structured to achieve effective and efficient operations.

Operational/Performance Audits: Operational audits provide an objective analysis of business operating processes, procedures, and programs and related controls. Operational audits focus on improving program performance, reducing costs, facilitating decision making for initiating corrective action, and contributing to public accountability. Operational audits generally include elements of both internal control and compliance reviews.
Internal Audit also performs other activities as part of the Internal Audit Plan:

Monitoring: These activities include monitoring activities related to sales tax recovery services.

Follow-Up Activities: These activities are undertaken to determine whether audit recommendations have been implemented or otherwise satisfactorily addressed.

Investigations: Investigative activities are performed in response to a complaint or allegation.

1.3 FISCAL YEAR 21 OBJECTIVES
Internal Audit has integrated specific objectives into its current four-year work plan:

- Develop more quantitative methods to the Audit Plan risk assessment criteria;
- Select and complete Peer Review by outside entity (could be delayed due to COVID-19);
- Increase the number of operational/performance audits conducted; and
- Increased emphasis on follow-up of past audit recommendations.

1.4 INTERNAL AUDIT AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY
Internal Audit provides an independent assessment function and has no direct authority over the activities it audits, nor does it relieve management of any assigned responsibility. Internal Audit administratively reports directly to the Director of Performance and Audit (who is an indirect report to the General Manager). Internal Audit is authorized to conduct a broad program of internal auditing within BART and has full and unlimited access to all BART business units, records, systems, property and personnel.

1.5 INTERNAL AUDIT PLAN DEVELOPMENT
Internal Audit maintains a dynamic master list of potential audits from which it develops an annual audit plan that identifies the content and the timing of audits. The annual audit plan is developed based on various factors, including:

- Potential financial impact or risk to the District;
- Recent changes in management, computer systems, or business processes;
- Sensitivity or criticality of data processed;
- Previously identified control issues; and
- Input from BART management and staff.

The scope of individual audits varies depending on the function being audited.

The Internal Audit Plan for FY21 calls for approximately 6,680 hours for audit and non-audit activity exclusive of continuing professional education and administrative activities. Of the 6,680 hours, the Audit Plan includes 2,400 hours for capital compliance, rate review, and termination claim activities; 3,210 hours for operational/performance audits, internal control audits, compliance audits/reviews, and follow-up to previous audit recommendations; and 1,070 hours of non-audit support and monitoring, including a review of the Bombardier rail car pricing proposal. The plan is subject to change based on scope of audit activities, complexity of audit work, and District priorities.
Details of FY21 Audit Plan activities are presented on the next page.
